For anyone with a passing familiarity with computers, that sounds like a major security breach waiting to happen.. Getting IE or a newer Microsoft browser, Edge, on a Mac, simply isn't possible unless you want to download a potentially risky version from Torrent sites (not recommended).. There are a lot of people using Internet Explorer at work and Mac's browsers at home with no way to synchronize the Internet sessions and migrate their data easily.. How to get Internet Explorer for Mac? As we mentioned, IE and Microsoft's more evolved browser, Edge, is not directly available for Mac users.
